

Home Alone and Safe

Saturday, Dec. 12

9:30 a.m. to noon

Red Clover Room

at the Gifford Conference Center

44 S. Main St., Randolph, Vermont

Designed by chapters of the American Red Cross, this course teaches children ages 8-11 how to respond to home alone situations, including Internet safety, family communications, telephone safety, sibling care, personal and gun safety, and basic emergency care. Children will role play, brainstorm, watch a video on the topic, take home a workbook and handouts, and earn a certificate upon completion.

Register by calling Jenny Davis at 728-2274 or 728-2257.

The cost is $25.

Class subsidized by the Lamson Howell Foundation

Babysitter's Training Course

Saturday, Dec. 5

9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
(please bring your lunch)

Red Clover Room

*at the Gifford Conference Center
44 S. Main St., Randolph, Vermont*

Course cost is $30.

Register with Jenny Davis at 728-2274 or 728-2257.

Space is limited.

Learn how to be a safe, responsible and successful babysitter. The course from instructor Jude Powers covers good business practices, basic care, diapering, safety, play, proper hand washing, handling infants, responding to injuries, decision making in emergencies, action plans and more. Communication skills are emphasized along with being a good role model. Each participant will receive a certification card upon completion of the course and a reference notebook to take home.

Class subsidized by the Lamson Howell Foundation